

Social Studies Teaching Presentation Rubric

A	B	C	D	F
Presentation thoroughly addresses all of the major aspects of the topic. (Includes— but goes deeper than—information in textbook.)	Presentation addresses all of the major aspects of the topic. (Includes information in the textbook and goes deeper in a few areas.)	Presentation addresses the majority of the major aspects of the topic. (Includes the majority of information in the textbook, but does not go in depth.)	Presentation addresses some of the major aspects of the topic. Several aspects of the topic that are included in the textbook are left out of the presentation.	Presentation provides very little information about the topic or is completely off topic.
Information is taught in an engaging manner. (Presenters do not merely read from their notes, but engage their audience through enthusiasm and eye contact.)	Information is taught rather than read. (Presenters do not merely read from their notes, but engage their audience through eye contact.)	Information is mainly read from the notes. Very little eye contact is made with the audience.	Information is strictly read from the notes.	Information is strictly read from the notes. Presentation is difficult to see and/or hear.
Presenters are able to thoroughly answer relevant questions.	Presenters are able to thoroughly answer relevant questions.	Presenters are able to answer some questions.	Presenters are largely unable to answer questions.	Presenters are unable to answer questions.
Presentation lasts 15-30 minutes	Presentation lasts at least 15 minutes. (Possibly exceeds time limit.)	Presentation lasts less than 15 minutes.	Presentation lasts less than 15 minutes.	Presentation lasts less than 5 minutes.
PowerPoint or designated visual is effectively used to enhance the presentation.	PowerPoint or designated visual is used to enhance the presentation.	PowerPoint or designated visual is used, but does not clearly go along with the presentation.	PowerPoint or designated visual is used to some extent, but it is incomplete or otherwise deficient.	PowerPoint or designated visual is not used.
Presentation shows evidence that the group has fully met all expectations listed on the checklist.	Presentation shows evidence that the group has met the majority of the expectations listed on the checklist.	Presentation shows evidence that the group has met most of the expectations listed on the checklist.	Presentation shows evidence that the group has met some of the expectations listed on the checklist.	Presentation shows evidence that the group has not met the expectations listed on the checklist.