

Social Studies Teaching Project Rubric

A	B	C	D	F
Project thoroughly addresses all of the major aspects of the topic. (Includes— but goes deeper than—information in textbook.)	Project addresses all of the major aspects of the topic. (Includes information in the textbook and goes deeper in a few areas.)	Project addresses the majority of the major aspects of the topic. (Includes the majority of information in the textbook, but does not go in depth.)	Project addresses some of the major aspects of the topic. Several aspects of the topic that are included in the textbook are left out of the presentation.	Project provides very little information about the topic or is completely off topic.
Information is presented effectively.	Information is presented fairly effectively.	Information is presented fairly.	Information is presented poorly.	Information is presented poorly or is missing.
Project is able to thoroughly answer relevant questions.	Project is able to thoroughly answer relevant questions.	Project is able to answer some questions.	Project is largely unable to answer questions.	Project is unable to answer questions.
Project meets all listed requirements and expectations	Project meets all listed requirements and expectations	Project meets most listed requirements and expectations	Project meets part of listed requirements and expectations	Project meets few or none listed requirements and expectations
All students participated in all aspects of the project.	All students participated in all aspects of the project.	All or some students participated in most aspects of the project.	All or some students participated in partial aspects of the project.	All or some students participated in few or none of the aspects of the project.
Project shows evidence that the group has fully met all expectations listed on the checklist.	Project shows evidence that the group has met the majority of the expectations listed on the checklist.	Project shows evidence that the group has met most of the expectations listed on the checklist.	Project shows evidence that the group has met some of the expectations listed on the checklist.	Project shows evidence that the group has not met the expectations listed on the checklist.