

Code of Hammurabi

By Florian Sabatini

Law 22

If someone is caught in the act of robbery, then he shall be put to death.

Law 195

If a son strikes his father, the son's hands shall be cut off.

Law 202

If someone strikes a man of higher rank, then he shall be whipped 60 times in public.

Summary

Some of Hammurabi's laws were very cruel and harsh. They either included getting hurt or dying. Some of his harsh laws include punishments such as, death, getting your hands off, and being whipped. Some of his laws were very cruel.