

Code of Hammurabi

By Mia Sanchez-Guevara

Law 282:

If a slave says to his master “You are not my master” then the slave’s master should cut the slave’s ear off.

Law 14:

If a man has stolen a child, he shall be put to death.

Law 22:

If any one is committing a robbery and is caught, then he shall be put to death.

Why Hammurabi's Laws Were Harsh

Some laws were very harsh because they were just unfair to people to have a punishment so harsh with them not just being their fault or them having to do something, but a punishment so harsh.
