SEL for Parents

". . . the fairness police have been known to rear their ugly heads in my home. And while my husband and I do try to instill a healthy level of justice in our family, we also make it a point not to allow an obsession with fair dealing rule the day . . . we got started at an early age teaching our son – and years later, our daughter – that while we respect and understand their natural desire for fairness, the fact remains that life is typically unfair. As their parents, one of our most important jobs is to help them to recognize this fact and to respond to it in a healthy way.

What follows are some ways we have helped our children to distinguish between a serious and worthwhile grievance, and one they should just let roll off their back."

Go to our SEL at Meigs website (<https://selatmeigs.weebly.com/sel-for-parents-2019-20.html>) to learn more about handling complaints about fairness.

Link to stay after school for home Volleyball games

It's Volleyball season and time to show your school spirit. If your child would like to stay after school to attend Meigs home Volleyball games, please click the link below. The form must be submitted no later than 8AM on the day of the game for your student to be allowed to stay after school.

CITY SAVER FINAL PUSH

We are down to the last week of our City Saver campaign and are still working to reach our goal of selling 800 books. If you haven't purchased the book your child brought home please consider doing so online <https://squareup.com/store/meigsmart/> or by sending $25 to school this week.

If you want to continue to sell, students can still earn an invite to the pizza lunch, Gamez on Wheelz, BoomBozz Pizza gift card, Climb Nashville passes, Altitude Trampoline Park passes, and an invite to the private party with the Preds at Altitude.

If you can not participate please return the book to the office.
