SEL for Parents

"It's never too early to think about your child's adolescence. Seriously?!? Yes, seriously. Strong families and open communication don't suddenly materialize when children reach adolescence. We build the foundation for our families to be safe, secure, and loving places early in childhood. So, even if your child is not yet a tween or teen, now is exactly the right time to start preparing."

Go to our SEL at Meigs website (<https://selatmeigs.weebly.com/sel-for-parents-2019-20.html>) for additional information.

Chess News

On Saturday, September 21st, the first big Scholastic Chess Tournament of the school year was held at the Overbrook School, and Meigs was well represented.

In the Junior High Section, Tyler Reynolds took home the 15th place medal and brother Jack Reynolds captured the 14th place medal.

In the Elementary Section, Joe Chen won the 12th place medal in a very large group.

In the unrated section, Kevin Li was the only participant to win all his games and took home the FIRST-PLACE trophy.

Congratulations to all these Cavaliers of the Chessboard!
