SUMMER READING

Congratulations to those of you who worked so hard on your summer reading. We will be using the book, The Firebug Connection this week and next as we learn about using scientific method to experiment. This Friday, students will complete an activity about the biography he/she read this summer. A test will also be given over the third summer reading selection, Frindle.

MR. P'S TECH TASK IS A DAILY RESPONSIBILITY

Beginning today, students will be using the class website each afternoon. Students will check the HW (homework) webpage each day and complete a TECH TASK. Questions each day on the TECH TASK will support learning that occurs in class and will serve as a way for Mr. P to formatively assess student understanding.

MR. P'S PROCEDURES...

Students, the following are reminders of specific classroom procedures:

- Push your chair in when you leave your desk.
- Have your agenda signed daily.
- Locker breaks are 7:45AM, and 2:45PM. Students should remember to take all materials from the locker at that time. Keep all materials in your locker until needed.
